

JUDY BLAIR

FACILITATOR

Being a board member for a nonprofit is a big responsibility, and if you're new to the nonprofit world it can be hard to understand how all the parts should work together.

Judy's experience as a board member, board president, nonprofit employee, donor, and volunteer can help inform how you deal with conflict, strategic planning, the board/operations divide, and more.

By using individual sessions that allow you to focus on the issue at hand, this mentoring program will help you realize your potential along with getting the education you need to be effective.

In person,
videochat, &
phone sessions
